

How to position an external camera for a Red Hat remote exam

Use an external camera with a wide-angle view and a cable with a minimum length of 1m to perform the security check of your environment. Your face, hands, and keyboard must be visible throughout the entire exam session.

Example of an approved setup using one external web camera:

Example of an approved setup using two web cameras:

Click here for more information regarding remote exam policy and proctoring